A Story About Four People

EVERYBODY - SOMEBODY - ANYBODY - NOBODY

There was an important job to be done and EVERYBODY was asked to do it. EVERYBODY was sure SOMEBODY would do it. ANYBODY could have done it, but NOBODY did it. SOMEBODY got angry about that because it was EVERYBODY'S job. EVERYBODY thought ANYBODY would do it, but NOBODY realized that EVERYBODY wouldn't do it. It ended up that EVERYBODY blamed SOMEBODY, when actually NOBODY asked ANYBODY.

The moral of this story is that NOBODY should take ANYBODY for granted. EVERYBODY should feel responsible for telling SOMEBODY to do a job that needs to be done, or else NOBODY will end up doing it.

Elder's Comments

The Tara Beacon, produced each week, is to inform, encourage and exhort the congregation. Whereas several hours go into producing it, reading it takes only a few minutes. Those who want to keep up with what is happening at Tara, or elsewhere, or be uplifted by the various articles, make it a point to read it. Some scan it and read only the section that appeals to them. Some seldom read it at all. The Elders' Comments section is of special interest to some who read every word each week. Mistakes are made quite often in the bulletin in spite of efforts to correct them before printing it. Your understanding is appreciated.
